

THE CLAIRE PEACOCK FOUNDATION

SILENT AUCTION

Raising Funds for the

NSPCC

DEAR ALL - I would like to thank you for your kind contributiona to the Claire Peacock Foundation where all the money we raise goes to the NSPCC who, like Claire, dedicate their life to saving vulnerable children

Claire saved Thousands of Children working for Bucks Social Services and not only saved children but would also commit her work to saving what she would say were Vulnerabale parents as well that also needed support.

Claire lived every day with a smile and loved to Dance and it is a fitting tribute that we Keep on Dancing, Keep on Smiling and Sing the night away and have the time of our life.

Thank you for all your Support and Generosity and Love.

LBC WITH IAN PAYNE EXPERIENCE

Behind the Scenes at LBC radio and a day in the Life of a Radio Presenter

Kindly Donated by Ian Payne.

Ian is a London-based news and sports correspondent at ITV News and a presenter at LBC radio. I am also starting up a business: “newsandsportUK” providing news and sports reports and analysis to radio and TV stations around the world.

I have worked in British Broadcasting for over 25 years Payne began his career on the BBC’s journalistic training programme in 1986 with BBC Radio Lancashire, and was once named as Northwest Young Journalist of the Year. He then became a producer with Radio 2 and latterly on other programmes including Radio 4’s Today and then Payne then joined BBC Radio 5 Live, covering a wide variety of sports, as well as presenting Sport on 5. In 2000 he became the presenter of the weekday afternoon show.[2] Payne twice won a Sony Radio Award and worked for Sky Sports as Anchorman of Goals on Sunday. This is a one off opportunity and ideal role for any Budding Reporter.

SHAUN DICKENS CHEF EXPERIENCE

In the Kitchen with Shaun Dickens

Shaun is an award winning chef who has trained at some of the finest restaurants in the world, working closely with chefs of international repute including Raymond Blanc, Thomas Keller and Alan Murchison.

Shaun started his career in the 2 Michelin starred Le Manoir aux Quat' Saisons before moving to New York to work at Per se, a 3 Michelin starred restaurant ranked 6th best restaurant in the world.

Shaun returned to England in 2009 and joined L'ortolan in Shinfield for two years before moving to Fallowfields as head chef and farm manager.

Shaun Dickens at The Boathouse is Shaun's first restaurant and will showcase the skills and passion he has developed in the charming, stylish and elegant setting of Henley-on-Thames. The restaurant offers a wonderful lunch and dinner menu with a wide selection of modern interpretations of British classics and of course in the summer the terrace provides a stunning vista of the river.

This is an amazing Behind the scenes Prize to work inside a Leading Kitchen and ideal for any Food Critic to be with one of the UK's Rising Stars

10am arrival for coffee and a quick briefing
Straight into the kitchen ● Work along side the Award Winning Shaun Dickens and see how the kitchen works and help with the prep and cook a couple of dishes. ●
Mini wine tasting with our restaurant manager.

● Then sit down for a 3 course lunch with 2 glasses of wine.

EXPERIENCE

'La Tomatina' Festival for 2 people - 30th August 2017

A unique opportunity to attend the 'La Tomatina' Festival in Spain. The package is for 2 people and includes 2 nights in a 4* Hotel (twin or double room) in the beautiful city of Valencia and includes transfers to Bunol (38km) which is where the festival is held.

La Tomatina is a food fight festival held on the last Wednesday of August each year in the town of Bunol near to Valencia in Spain. Thousands upon thousands of people make their way from all corners of the world to fight in this 'World's Biggest Food Fight' where more than one hundred metric tons of over-ripe tomatoes are thrown in the streets!!!!

Prior to 2013 anywhere from 40,000 to 50,000 (reported to be 50,000 in 2012) people crammed into this huge tomato fight, greatly expanding Bunol's normal 9,000 person population. Since 2013 official ticketing has been in place limiting the number of participants to just 20,000 lucky people.

Flights are not included.
